New Safe Walk Program
Oklahoma State University has launched a Safe Walk program that will provide enhanced safety on its Stillwater campus. The program uses trained student Public Service Officers or PSOs to accompany anyone from one campus location to another between the hours of 7 p.m. and 3 a.m.

Currently there are 15 part-time student PSOs and one non-student reserve that have been trained and are on patrol and the OSUPD has plans to take more applicants. Students interested in becoming a PSO should go to www.hireosugrads.com.

Those interested in receiving assistance through the Safe Walk program should call the OSUPD at 405-744-6523 and ask for a PSO to be dispatched to your location on campus.

Extended Library Hours Start Sunday
The Edmon Low Library will open at noon December 1st and remain open 24 hours per day through pre-finals and finals weeks. It will close on December 13th at 8:00pm.

Not only is the library a great place for individual study or research, it also offers conference rooms where groups can meet to study or practice presentations. Students can use desktop computers and printers and also

Announcing a New Local Care Package Service

Announcing the opening of Goodies and Love from Home, designing & hand delivering creative & delicious care packages to your Stillwater OSU student. We have several packages from which to choose or you can design one specifically for your student. We strongly believe it's important to contribute to our local Stillwater community so we use products from local vendors, such as Cake Crazy, LLC & Red Rock Bakery.

Whether it's a special occasion, or simply a surprise, let your college students know you're thinking about & miss them by sending a delightful gift from goodiesandlovefromhome.com. It's sure to bring a smile to your cowboy or cowgirl's face! www.goodiesandlovefromhome.com

Winter Weather Precautions

Stillwater expects to see some winter weather including possible sleet and snow starting December 5th. This is the first such forecast for this year so it's important for students to know that they can turn to OSU’s Office of Environmental Health and Safety for details about how to stay safe during cold or hazardous weather events. Students can visit their website at: http://ehs.okstate.edu/weather.htm or the Office of Campus Safety at: http://safety.okstate.edu/severe-weather

Festival of Lights

It's the time of the year to again light up the Oklahoma State University campus for the holiday season. The Second Annual Fanfare of Lights will take place Dec. 3 beginning at 7 p.m. Students, employees and all of the Stillwater community is invited to spark the holiday spirit on campus with glow sticks, cocoa, cookies, and the traditional lighting of the campus.

Festivities will begin in front of Edmon Low Library. Attendees will receive glow sticks and enjoy free cookies and hot chocolate.

OSU is Now Hiring Orientation Leaders for Summer 2014

The Office of New Student Orientation & Enrollment seeks dynamic, organized, and experienced undergraduate students to serve as members of the 2014 Orientation Team.

Orientation Team members are undergraduate students who serve incoming freshmen, transfer students, and families throughout orientation and enrollment programs. The Orientation Team members welcome students and families while serving as role models and engaging participants to create a positive orientation experience. Applications are available at:
http://newstudents.okstate.edu
and are due December 6th.
